News of the Day.

A subscription has been started in Philadelphia to raise a fund to purchase for the family of the late President a home near Springfield, Illinois, as a tribute of a grateful people to the virtues of the martyr to his country. Individual contributions are now to be had in hundred dollar lots.

The Post's Washington special says more arrests have been made, and information obtained throwing more light upon the conspiracy to assassinate the Vice President and the Secretary of State. A dispatch to the Post from Washington states that the assassination of Harrold fastens beyond a doubt the assassination plot and its full operation upon Jeff Davis and his commissioners in Canada. On the other hand, Geo. N. Sanders and Beverly Tucker, two of the commissioners, are still in a manifest denials. In the assassin's plot, and "to offset the charges of complicity in it by accusing President Johnson with a plot to murder their 'Christian President'—meaning of course the fugitive Davis." They propose, with how much sincerity it would be hard to say, to go to Bussey's Park trial, if the United States will pay the expenses of their defense and guarantee their safety. As it would be more to satisfy the United States of their innocence than to clear themselves of the charge of complicity with the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, they think it no more reasonable that the country should bear the expenses of the trial.

Gen. Sherman's headquarters will be located for a time at Alexandria, Va. His army will be occupied in the vicinity of that place.

Mexican agents in Washington, anticipating the discharge of a large portion of Sherman's army, advertise in this city for officers and soldiers to go to Mexico, offering strong inducements.

The news this morning is very meager, on account of the stormy weather that prevailed last night.

The Amendment in the 2d Dist.

[For the Union Press.]

CALHOUN, KY., May 1, 1865.—Eds. Press:

To-day Hon. Genl. H. Yeaman, Union candidate for Congress, addressed a letter to the people of McLean county. Many here have been undecided upon the subject of the "amendment," but the current of public opinion is now setting in its favor. Such arguments as he urges cannot be answered, and will turn the public mind and produce right results.

In answering objections that have been urged to it, Mr. Yeaman showed conclusively the competency and legality of the measure, not only by an argument drawn from the power of amendment as provided in the Constitution, but which the subject of slaves is no exception.

The history of the clause, showing that an attempt was made in the Convention which framed the Constitution to make slavery an exception, and the motion was voted down, is conclusive.

On the subject of compensation he showed that Kentucky was in no condition to complain, as she had taken every opportunity to declare by legislative resolve that she would not accept compensation of the national government; and showed, beyond room for doubt, that an alteration, by Constitutional amendment, of the fundamental law of the land, by which master and slave is abolished, is not a "taking of private property for public use" within the meaning of the Constitution, and is therefore not one of the cases where "just compensation" is required of the Government.

This was the logical view, but he would contrast the benefits to be derived from the amendment with the current and market value of slaves.

The resolution had destroyed slavery, and set up over all the South what would weaken the influence of Kentucky in the national councils, and defer the healthful reorganization of her labor system, and, withal, we would be more prosperous under the new system. Therefore let it be inaugurated at the earliest date.

He closed short, giving even a synopsis of the telling compound arguments of a speech of an hour and a half. Wm. Yeaman deals in no low appeals to passion, but offers facts and arguments to the judgment of intelligent men. Neither does he take hold of the subject like a mindless, footloose politician or a man who was ashamed of what he said, and was apologetic for it, but goes boldly and pluckily into the subject, taking hold of the main points, and what are supposed to be the rough points, and defends his position with a spirit, a clearness, a power and an eloquence that serve him well receive success. In the centre of his speech he paid a glowing tribute to the character and worth of Mr. Lincoln. The cause is moving, and you may look for a good report from GREEN RIVER.

Union Meeting in Mercer County.

At a meeting of the Unconditional Union men of Mercer county, held in Harrodsburg on Thursday, May 1, 1865, J. L. Smedley was elected to the chair, and John G. Kyle, vice-chairman.

On motion the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

"Resolved, That recognizing in Gen. S. F.ry, the sterling qualities of a true patriot, and appreciating his loyalty in being a member of the Kentucky to take up arms in its defense, we recommend him to the consideration of the Congressional Convention to be held in Lexington, Ky., on the 8th of May, as the choice of the Union men of Mercer county as their candidate for Congress."

"Resolved, That all Union men of Mercer county who are in favor of the "Conditional Amendment," are appointed delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held in Lexington on the 8th of May, 1865.

"Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the National Unionist, Frankfort Commonwealth, Louisville UNION PRESS, Louisville Journal, and Central Gazette at Danville.

"JOHN L. SMEDLEY, Chairman,

"JOHN G. KYLE, Secretary."

Credit General Hallieck.

General Hallieck has intimated to the inhabitants of Virginia what they will have to do to retain the privileges of citizenship, which the South has forfeited. The idea of some of them, that they could remain here, and, while protected by the United States, remain hostile to them in sentiment, is exploded. His order No. 4 intimates to them that their promise to be loyal citizens will be a pre-requisite. Country and city should be the first to do this, for all kinds must hold their tongues and renounce their pens until they take the oath of allegiance. Every person in business must do the same. Officers of corporations who have generally been disloyal are also to be brought up by this test. No one can have his private property restored to him unless he shows his determination to remain forth to be a loyal citizen. Goods cannot be received or shipped by the advocates of the rebellion. Finally, and most grievous of all, the rebels will be forced to herself a lord and master and promise to love, honor and obey him unless she first promises to love, honor and obey the United States. The unfortunate swain must also postpone his happiness unless he takes the preparatory oath; and, harder still, even if the country compelled him to these requisites, they cannot be pardoned unless he is a loyal master. As the women of the South have been more bitterly disloyal than the men this announcement will come upon some of them with the stinging effect of a clap of thunder. They will have to lament more loudly than ever that "the course of true love never did run smooth."—[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

THE PREACHER'S OATH OR "CONQUERING THEIR PREJUDICES."

We have been much amused with a correspondence that has recently taken place in Baltimore between Major General Lew Wallace and Dr. Joseph J. Bullock, pastor of one of the Presbyterian Churches of that city. It appears that Dr. Bullock, with several other ministers of the city of Baltimore had been suspected and accused of disloyalty to the National Government and sympathy with the Rebellion. Dr. B. desired to "purge himself" of these charges and "to talk over the matter" with General Wallace. The General very willingly assented to the "purging" process and suggested a medicine in the form of an oath which he thought exactly suited to such cases as Dr. Bullock's.

We think the remedy an excellent one, and for cases of suspected loyalty on the part of rebel preachers, or preachers in sympathy with the rebellion, it goes much further than a dose, or indeed a whole bottle of castor oil. It pierces even to the "very joints and marrow of rebel sympathizers."

This is the oath that Dr. B. was compelled to swallow, and we suggest that it is a good, honest, loyal purge for all similar cases.

Headquarters Middle Department, 8th Army Corps, Baltimore, April 29, 1865.
Oath of Allegiance.—Major General Lew Wallace, do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith, allegiance, and loyalty to the Government of the United States, and support, protect, defend, and sustain in the Constitution, Government, and laws the right that it maintains to maintain the nation, its independence, in its integrity, and independence, resolution, or law of any State, or Legislature, or to the contrary notwithstanding; that I will discourage and disown secession, rebellion, and the disruption or severance of the Union; that I disdain and abjure all faith and fellowship with the so-called Confederate States, and their confederates, and pledge my property and my life to the sacred performance of this my solemn oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States.

And further, I will not attempt to trade, and have no correspondence directly or indirectly, or have any business transactions whatever with any person living in the so-called Confederate States, unless under the proper military supervision and approval. And that I do this with a full determination, purpose, and without any material reservation, except however, that I have a full and faithfully performed all the duties required of me as a true and loyal citizen of these United States, so help me God.

Witness—John Woolley, Lieut. Colonel and Provost Marshal.

The Rev. Dr. Bullock will be remembered by many of our citizens as the worthy predecessor of the notorious Stuart Robinson in the pastorate of the Second Presbyterian church, in this city. His wife has the misfortune to be the sister of that prince of traitors, John C. Breckinridge, the rebel Secretary of War. His oldest son, under the tutelage of Kentucky copperheads, had his southern heart "fired up to the proper point," and went into the rebel army in search of "his rights." He found those rights in the shape of a severe wound received in battle, which terminated in the loss of one of his legs.

A majority of Dr. Bullock's church are understood to be rebel sympathizers, and many of them are accused of being original secessionists.

With this state of existing facts, the case of Dr. B., in standing up and taking the "loyal preachers' oath," as above stated, is a remarkable exemplification of "conquering one's prejudices," and also of "loyalty under difficulties." We suppose that Dr. B. begins to think that it "costs something to be loyal" these times in the city of Baltimore. It gives us pleasure to add that Dr. B., aside from his former sympathies and desires, is a faithful preacher of the gospel, and a most estimable gentleman. We have no doubt he will honestly observe the obligations of his oath. We have heard it hinted that the "loyal preachers' oath" will soon be introduced into Kentucky. It is certainly sorely needed.

THE WORD 'SOUTH.'

Many inquiries have been made of late with regard to the origin of the word "South," and its distinctive meaning as the word is used in the South. Neither does he take hold of the subject like a mindless, footloose politician or a man who was ashamed of what he said, and was apologetic for it, but goes boldly and pluckily into the subject, taking hold of the main points, and what are supposed to be the rough points, and defends his position with a spirit, a clearness, a power and an eloquence that serve him well receive success. In the centre of his speech he paid a glowing tribute to the character and worth of Mr. Lincoln. The cause is moving, and you may look for a good report from GREEN RIVER.

MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE To-night.—It will be seen by the dispatch, published in another column, from Ex-Mayor W. Kaye, that Governor Bramlette will address the citizens of Louisville, at the Court House to-night. We hope there will be a large turn out of our citizens, without regard to party, to hear the Kentucky delegation, which accompanied the remains of the late President to Springfield, Illinois. Addresses may be expected by other members of the delegation.

The town crier was out last night on the hunt for a lost boy.

The Congressional Convention at Lexington meets on Monday next, the 8th inst.

The election for Constables takes place to-day. No interest is felt in the election, and but a small vote will be polled.

The work of tunnelling under the street railway at the corner of Fourth and Main streets will be commenced to-day. As the work will not bear the passage of heavy loads over it, we presume the cars will not be run any further up than Fourth street.

ARMY SCOUTS.—It would be difficult to mention all the kinds of work in which army scouts make themselves useful. A new occupation has just come to light which indicates considerable shrewdness on the part of the Federal commanders. About forty pieces of artillery which were buried by the rebels in the fields and along the roads, during their late famous retreat, have been unearthed by our men and brought safely to Burville. These pieces were discovered in a mountainous country, the same fact that the Federal scouts had the unsuspecting rebels to bury them. During the retreat, Sheridan's spies mixed freely and constantly with the rebels, and actually marked the places of concealment of cannon, caissons and other munitions of war to troublesome to accompany the fleet-footed chivalry.

The election Thursday in the Tenn. Legislature for two United States Senators, terminated in the choice of Joseph S. Fowler, of Davidson county, Comptroller of the State from April, 1862, to the present time, and James W. Green, of Green county, the former for six years, and the latter for four years.

A reliable private letter says that among Mr. Lincoln's papers has been found a package of letters, marked in his own handwriting, "An Answer to Pat." While many of them threatened his life, others warned him of plots to take it. He seems to have become so used to things of this sort that neither kind made any impression upon him.

WM. TWEDDLE, AUCTIONEER.—We take great pleasure in calling attention to the services of Mr. Wm. Tweddle, who offers his services as auctioneer &c. We can recommend him to those needing anything in his line. Mr. T. may be found where not engaged at Al Bourl's housekeepers' headquarters, on Fifth street, or orders may be left there for him, which will meet with prompt attention.

BODY OF A DROWNED MAN RECOVERED. Yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock the body of a man was found floating in the river above the ferry-landing, and brought to shore. It proved to be the body of Thomas Flaherty, who was drowned off the steamer Havanna on Friday last week. He was in the company of the steamer of Bullitt and Water streets. His wife was present and recognized the body. Coroner Gill was sent for, and held an inquest, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above.

"Yes, your honor," said Pat, "and I think your honor would have been a long time in the old country before ye'd been a judge, I tell you."

In a recent number of Charivari, John Bull is represented in an attitude of abject terror, leaning against a post inscribed "C. Yankee misletoe," in affright at a burly Yankee misletoe, who is throtting a man on the ground.

We learn from the Indianapolis Journal that a gang of bandits are operating in Marion county, Ind. The house of a widow of a Union soldier was fired twice and she has been compelled to leave her home. The scoundrels confine their operations to Union men and women, and take the wages of both sexes. The Union men of the county are under a complete reign of terror, not knowing when their houses may be burned over their heads. Gen. Hovey has been appealed to to protect them.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—There was a large audience at the opening of the new theater, and the first performance of the "Infernal Machine" was well received.

The Workingmen of Louisville, was presented with several new scenes. The best, most and laughable one being the interior of the "Drama" drinking saloon, with Tom Tindell "shaking up" stuff with ice in it. It was decided hit, and met with great response. To-night Mr. Ashley is to benefit and presents a rousing bill. Go everybody.

A FAST DOG.—A gentleman living in Lafayette, left yesterday morning for Green castle junction, and was followed to the depot by a small dog, barking to him. It was a "Snaf" was stoned back, and the leaders of the rebellion, and put them on trial. A few minutes after his arrival at the Junction, to his astonishment the dog came in, a little blown, but apparently good for the balance of the journey. A friend vouches for this. We don't—[Ind. William C. Cleary, the individual for whose arrest a reward of $10,000 is offered by the Government, was a resident of Cynthiana, Harrison county, Kentucky. He is a lawyer by profession and was born in the Cynthiana in the lower branch of the Kentucky Legislature in 1860. He left Cynthiana in 1861, and went to Richmond, where, for a year or two, he held the position of clerk in the State Department. Leaving Richmond, he proceeded to Canada, as private secretary to Clement C. Clay, one of Jeff. Davis' emissaries.

VERY BAD.—George Rolloons got very drunk yesterday. When George got drunk he has no control over his tongue or hands. Now George thought, after imbibing the bad whisky about air. At the principal corner a hat was made, and the sergents probably mentioned the use of whisky to credit to the soldiers in garrison the price of the whisky being sold by the fife and drum playing "God Save the Queen." Of course the soldiers feel highly honored in thus publicly proclaimed as swindlers. The London (C. W.) of the nation."

What is the secret music box located somewhere in the tender, which being set, plays eight popular airs, sufficient in length to entertain a supper, dinner or breakfast-table. Gov. Aiken, of S.C., in Washington

Mrs. Lincoln's Health Improving.

The Mystery of Booth's Burial.

Cleary Denies Knowing of the Assassination.

NEW YORK. May 5.—The Tribune's Washington special says Mrs. Lincoln's nervous system seemed stronger and more composed yesterday, but she is laboring under great depression again, in contemplation of the arrival of Mr. Lincoln at Springfield to-day.

Still will leave the White House as soon as permitted by her physician, and proceed directly to Illinois.

Gov. Aiken was closed this morning with President Johnson. He had a long interview with Secretary Stanton last evening.

He has the freedom of the city and enjoys the society of the members of his family who came with him. From all of which it is argued that he is here in aid of the Government, rather than to receive its disfavor.

The Washington Republican says neither of the statements detailing the mysterious manner of finally disposing of the body of Booth is true.

Col. Baker and his brother, Lieut. Baker, are the only two persons who know what disposition was made of it, and they are under oath to reveal the fact to no human being.

The statement professing to detail how or where the remains were deposited is not only guess-work, but a serious reflection upon the faithfulness of Col. Baker and his brother.

TORONTO, C. W., May 5.—Cleary, one of the parties for whom the President offers a reward in his proclamation, has published a letter declaring that there is not a particle of truth in the statement that he concocted and elicited the assassination, and asserts that he knew nothing of it till it was committed.

RIVER MATTERS.

ARRIVALS.

FRIDAY, MAY 5. Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati; Gen. Bell, Louisville; Morning Star, Henderson; Pine Grove, Cincinnati.

DEPARTURES.

St. Charles, Cincinnati; Lydia, Cincinnati; Wm. Ky. River; Morning Star, Henderson; Pine Grove, Nashville; W. R. Carter, N. Orleans.

THE RIVER was falling slowly yesterday, with 6 feet 2 inches water in the canal in the evening by the mark. During the previous 24 hours it had fallen three inches at the river, and 10 inches at the canal. The weather was quite warm and sultry, with the thermometer at 80 at noon, and a heavy sprinkle of rain in the evening, and a heavy fall of rain and hail at dark.

On the fall last evening there were 4 feet 2 inches water in the pass, down the Indian cut.

A terrible storm visited this region about dusk last evening, accompanied with vivid lightning, heavy thunder, a tremendous fall of rain, and a dash of hail, some of which was as large as hazelnuts.

The river had fallen ten inches at Cincinnati yesterday, with heavy rains the night previous, and another rise may be anticipated.

The Champion came down yesterday and in attempting to land on the reef of rocks at the mouth of the canal, lost a few hours' detention, with the assistance of the Gipsy, she got off, and descended the falls in company of the Pine Grove, bound for Vicksburg.

The Cumberland river was falling fast Thursday morning, with 6 feet water on the river. The Forman, Bertha, and Palmetto had arrived at Nashville, and the Columbia departed.

The river at Pittsburg on Thursday was falling with only 7 feet water in the channel.

The Lorenz left Pittsburg Wednesday evening for this port, and the Mississippi for St. Louis. The Owl, Empire City, and the new packet Armelia, Capt. Poe, were the next boats to leave Pittsburg.

The Calvine, with a Government trip for New Orleans, was due from Cincinnati last night. The Blue and Maggie Hays are from St. Louis, the Havana, Columbia, and Nightingale from Nashville, and the St. Patrick from Memphis.

We learn from the Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday that "Rob Roy" is to have a cabin full of passengers. The Navigator has gone to the vicinity of the water-works, and the river will be open for navigation, fitting and refitting for the summer campaign. The Shamrock is loading at the foot of Ludlow street, for Nashville. The Guidon re-shipped her Government freight on the Carolina, and laid up. Capt. Fuller has come from the Mississippi to the United States Mail steamer Gen. Beau.

The towboat Storm broke an engine below Columbus, and is coming here in a crippled condition to repair.

THE ST. PATRICK—FOR MEMPHIS.—The St. Pat. from Patrick, from Memphis, passed Cairo Wednesday evening, and was due last evening. She will be found at the Portland wharf this morning, ready for freight.

The St. Patrick, in connection with the Liberty, has been placed permanently in the river, and is now at Memphis. They are good boats, and the owners are popular, skilful, and attentive, and are alive to the interests of Louisville. At present the river trade is very dull, but our merchants by a little effort can save their freights for these packets, which are pledged to take all freights at the lowest packet rates.

The St. Patrick returns to Memphis and all way places this evening. She starts at 5 o'clock in charge of Capt. Geo. Hart, a very courteous and popular boatman, who takes care of passengers, and lands right at any point along the lower Ohio, including Paducah and Smithland; also at points above Memphis.

The Bermuda, Capt. Evans, having been detained completing her cargo, starts to Nashville and way places this evening. She is at the city wharf.

The R. L. Woodward is loading for Pittsburg.

The United States, the new clipper passenger packet for the U. S. Mail Line, takes her departure to Cincinnati to-day. She is by far the finest and most sumptuous packet ever in line, with state-room accommodations for a hundred passengers, and unsurpassed speed, great desideratum these fast times. She stands now in charge of the former officers of the Gen. Beau, Capt. Whitten in command, with Capt. Taylor in the clerk's office to attend to passengers.
